

Amy J. Filmore

National Third Vice President

2016-2020

I became a member Alpha Phi Chapter Orlando, Florida, February 27, 1965

On the chapter level I have held every position except Treasure in Alpha Phi Chapter. On the regional level I served as Secretary, Parliamentarian, and National Nominating Chairman for the South Atlanta Region.

On the national level I have served as Armor Bearer for Dr. Catherine E. Bozeman, co-chairman of the National Education Committee and I currently serve as National Third Vice President.

For 43 years I worked for the public school system in Orange and Palm Beach Counties of Florida in the following leadership roles; elementary classroom teacher, curriculum resource teacher, assistant principal, principal of Phyllis Wheatly Elementary, program Specialist for Title I, adjunct professor at Nova University-Orlando, Florida and served as a District Administrator for Orange County.

I am an accomplished author of “What’s the Code” published 2005. I established “ALI” (Alternative Learning Institution, Inc.) 2004-2009.

I received BS Degree in Education, Master of Arts Degree in Education, Certification in Leadership and Administration, and a Doctorate Degree in Business Administration

I received the Teacher of the Year Award from Brookshire Elementary School, Human Relations Award for Orange County, FL., Outstanding Educator Award from Rock Lake Elementary School, Orlando, FL., Outstanding Principal Educator from the City of Apopka, FL., Elementary Principal Advocate Award of Students from The Guidance Association of Orange County Schools, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Human Relations Award for Community Service from the Historic Town of Eatonville.

As a Member of Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church Eatonville, FL. serve on the Deaconess Board. I am a past member of the Trustee Board, senior choir, and organized the first Mother/Daughter Mother’s Day luncheon. I have been recognized as an Outstanding Member of Eatonville’s Voices of Distinction, as well as being recognized as the Facilitator for The Town of Eatonville’s Town Summit for elected officials.